The total number of arrests made by the Paducah police force during the month of August was 237, which is a record breaker. Fire Department.

August was an average month with the fire department as 19 alarms were answered during the month. The most dangerous fire was in the store of Hecht & Company, but the other fires were small blazes. The fire loss for the month will not exceed $2,000, while the insurance on the buildings and stocks is many times that amount.

Burial Permits.

City Clerk Maurice McIntyre issued 33 burial permits to Oak Grove cemetery during the past month. Nineteen were for white and fourteen for colored people.

Finances.

The monthly report of City Treasurer George Walters and Auditor Alex Kirkland for August, showing the standing of the city's finances, is as follows:

Disbursements.....	70,758.82
Balance September 1.....	$49,001.71

Record of Recruits.

The largest number of applicants received since the local army recruiting station has been established were received in August by Sergeants O. A. Blake and Kreeky. Revenue Report.

August was a quiet month in the sale of cigar, beer and liquor stamps, although business was normal for the summer. It is the first monthly report of Deputy Stamp Collector F. N. Hazell. The receipts for the month were: $10,712.65. During the month 192 wholesale liquor stamps were issued.

I. C. Hospital.

August was a big month for the Illinois Central railroad hospital, as there was an increase both in the number of accidents and in the number of sick patients. The increase is attributed to the increased force of the railroad shops. The report is: Number of patients August 1 to 31, 18; admitted, 88; number of patients September 1, 81; deaths, 1.

North Pole Reached by American Explorer, Cook, is Report London Receives From Copenhagen Today

According to Brief Dispatch
He Located Pole in April, 1908—Made Trip in Winter
Time Over the Ice.

London, Sept. 1.—Dispatches from Copenhagen today say that Dr. F. A. Cook, the Brooklyn Arctic explorer, discovered the north pole April 21, 1908.

Doctor Frederick Albert Cook, a noted surgeon of Brooklyn, U. S. A., whose work as an explorer in the Arctic has won international fame, his successful trip began in July, 1907. It was a private expedition, financed by himself and his friend, J. B. Bradley, a multi-millionaire of New York, a sportsman, who chartered Cook's ship. Adherents of Lieut. Robert E. Peary were jealous and tried to stop the expedition; but Cook was already in the land of perpetual ice and snow. With only one white companion and several Eskimos, dogs and sleds he made his last dash, expecting an absence of three years. He was heard from only twice, when his companion was compelled to return because he was sick. Later a letter was carried by Eskimos and reached his wife telling her he was well and would continue until he discovered the pole.

Over Winter Ice.
New York, Sept. 1.—Dr. Cook went into the polar regions on this trip with a startling new theory as to how the ice had formed. He believed that the ice was formed by the great ice would fall in the winter. Radical as this may seem, great faith is expressed in it by ice men and pilots who have wintered in the great circle. Heretofore every explorer has pushed as far north as he could during his first summer and then has established winter quarters.

A double purpose was always in view, to recuperate during the colder months for the hard dash that was to come and to wait until the moving of the ice had opened up leads to give the explorer a chance to travel by the boats. Dr. Cook has revolutionized all this and staked his life on the result. He is no luckless adventurer, but a cool practical ice navigator, who has gone through many campaigns. He was surgeon and ethnologist to the first Peary expedition, in 1891-92; commander of the expedition on the Zeta, a yacht, in 1893; organizer and commander of the expedition on the Miranda, a steamship, in 1891; surgeon, anthropologist and photographer of the Belgian Antarctic expedition of 1897-1898, and surgeon to the Peary auxiliary expedition on the Erik, a steamship, in 1901.

On these expeditions he had made a full study of ice and ice conditions, and his present day theory would seem to be a natural deduction. He had found the ice firmer in the winter, and learned that comparatively smooth surfaces were presented for sledging parties, making progress easy for mile after mile. He reckoned

Frenchmen Fight Real Duel and Draw Blood

Paris, Sept. 1.—The fiercest duel in many years was fought here today between Captains Gerard and Ange, two of the best swordsmen in the French army. The scene was under a big wheel of the old exposition grounds. They fought seven rounds of three minutes each, when Ange fell with four wounds. Gerard suffered one slight wound. The combatants are still unreconciled. It grew out of reflections on Gerard's

LOEB'S RECORD REFLECTS ON THAT OF PREDECESSOR

New York, Sept. 1.—Since Collector Loeb took charge of the customs house here on March 9, collections on dutiable goods amounted to more than for the entire year of 1907. A hundred and fifteen millions are collected already an excess of three millions over 1907. This is surprising because there are less imports. The fines, penalties and forfeitures are nine times that of the entire year of 1907.

Funeral at Stithton.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Sept. 1.—The funeral of Mrs. Zoraida Pendleton, of Louisville, who died yesterday, was held at St. Patrick's church at Stithton.

that a winter dash would not be balked so frequently by the open lanes and that the advance would be regular.

It was Dr. Cook's plan to make his base of supplies or permanent camp at Annoak, in Greenland, about twenty miles north of Etah and about one thousand miles from the North Pole. He left there in December, 1907, and then made his way westward out of the Paete Peninsula and across to Ellsmere Land. It is believed he reached this in the month of February, 1908, as the last news was received from him, dated March 17, 1908, when he was near Cape Thomas Hubbard.

Previous Records.

The record of explorations in the Arctic regions are:

Message Reaches Brooklyn.

Brooklyn, Sept. 1.—Mrs. R. P. Davidson, a friend of the Cooks, today received the following message announcing the discovery of the north pole:

"Successful and well; cable address to Copenhagen."
(Signed): "FRED."

Mrs. Cook is now in Maine. Cook never was sensational, but was intrepid. He denounced Peary.

On Way to Copenhagen.

THIS HORSE BROKE INTO AUTOMOBILE

BUMPED LADY'S HEAD IN COLLISION—STONES THROWN.

Crashing through the glass windshield on the front of T. J. Stahl's automobile last night, a horse, whose driver turned to the left in passing, bumped heads with a lady in the machine, and besides inflicting a painful, though not serious, wound on her forehead, slightly damaged the front of the machine. Mr. Stahl had slowed down and thus averted a more serious accident. He turned far to the right when he met the vehicle on the Broadway road, but the driver pulled his horse to the left and caused a head-on collision.

He succeeds George Starrett, who resigned yesterday to return to his old trade, a sawyer. Starrett was appointed deputy by Mr. Clark about eight months ago. He decided to resume his old business and will locate elsewhere. King has served about four years in the fire department and was among the corps at No. 3 station until a year ago when he was transferred to Central fire station on North Fourth street. He was well liked and Chief Wood regrets to lose him. His vacancy will be filled by the board of police and fire commissioners.

PATTERSON TIPPED FOR DEPUTY, IF TICKET WINS

It is tipped that Col. William Patterson will be chief deputy to Col. Gus G. Singleton if he is elected county clerk. Colonel Singleton says he has not made any selection of his deputies, but the name of Patterson is on the lips of those who claim to know. Anyway Singleton and Patterson are good friends. Several years ago Patterson was city clerk.

ed and tried to get funds for a relief expedition.

Dillon Wallace, the Arctic explorer, aided with the subscription list and he would command the relief expedition. Sufficient funds never were collected and are now unnecessary. Cook often said: "One man with the love of the natives could do more than an entire expedition." According to Mrs. Cook, she received a letter eight months ago, but would not make it public because of a desire to avoid sensationalism.

JAPAN AND CHINA REACH AGREEMENT

CHINA MUST CONSULT JAPAN ON RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION.

Half Capital Required to Build the Hsi-Hsin-Hsin-Pakmen Railroad
Must Be Supplied by Japan.

MANCHURIAN QUESTION ENDS

Peking, Sept. 1.—China and Japan today concluded their negotiations on the general Manchurian questions that have been in dispute for some time past. The two countries will sign shortly an agreement of ten articles under the terms of which China agrees first, not to construct the Hsi-Hsin-Hsin-Pakmen railroad without consulting Japan; second, in the event that the Kirin railroad be extended to the Korean border, half the capital required will be borrowed from Japan; third, Japan is given the right to work the mines in the Fushun and Yentai districts; fourth, Japan will construct the extension of the Qinkow railroad; fifth, there shall be joint exploitation of the mines in the zone reached by the Manchurian and Antung-Mukden railroad lines; sixth, China agrees to open four trade ports in the Chongtong district between Korea and Manchuria; the Koreans living therein shall be under the jurisdiction of Japan, while those residing outside the ports shall be under the jurisdiction of China, except that Japan shall have the right to hold court in cases calling for the infliction of the death penalty; and seventh, China agrees that Japan move the station of the south Manchurian railroad to Mukden.

Japan agrees, first, to recognize Chinese sovereignty in the Chinese district; second, that the terminus of the Hsin-Hsin-Hsin railroad be moved to the city of Mukden and third to indemnify the owners of the Fushun and Yentai mines, the amount of the indemnities to be determined later.

During the negotiations Japan declined to discuss, first, the question of the administration of the railroad zone; second, the area of foreign police rights, within the three zones; and third, the question of putting the Antung-Mukden line.

This China understands to be a refusal to follow the Russian initiative in the Harbin agreement; namely, full recognition of sovereignty in accordance with the terms of the Portsmouth treaty.

How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection Is An Inherited Blood Disease or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Gilbert's and H. W. Walker Co. or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslam. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslam acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blotches, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itch, scaly scalp and all surface skin affections.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

CHASED

KILLED CARL GROOMES NEAR GREENFIELD LAST YEAR.

Capture Was Made by the Sheriff of Carroll County—Victim of Weakley County.

Dresden, Tenn., Sept. 1.—After a chase over five states by many different officers, Will Butler, who killed Carl Groomes, chief of police of Greenfield, Tenn., one year ago, was captured near Westport by Sheriff S. C. Aden, of Carroll county, today. Sheriff Bradfield went to Huntingdon and brought Butler to jail. There was considerable excitement over the capture, but no trouble is anticipated. Carl Groomes, who was killed, was the son of County Trustee Z. W. Groomes, who lives here.

PUBLIC SPIRIT.

It is a grievous sin for Brown
To let smoke from his chimney roll;
It darkly spreads across the town—
He must, indeed, lack pride of soul.
You say the smoke I make is black—
Yes, yes—I'd cease consuming slack
If they'd reduce the price of coal.

I wish that Jones would clean his yard
And paint his fence and now and then
Show that he did not disregard
The feelings of his fellow men.
The sidewalk's blocked before my store,
But I would have it so no more—No box of mine the way should bar—
If things were not just as they are.

They say that Green has bonds and stocks
On which no tax is ever paid
Locked somewhere in a safety box.
While taxes on the poor are laid;
Why do I fall to honestly
List all things that belong to me?
Why should I while the rest evade?

It makes me very sad, indeed,
To cite the sorry case of Gray;
He never pays the slightest heed
To duty on election day;
He foolishly remains content
To let crooks run the government—
No, I don't vote, I must confess;
But then what's one vote more or less?

The picnicers arrived in Ceriean Springs at 9:20 o'clock, and this evening the train will leave on the return trip at 6 o'clock, arriving in Paducah about 9 o'clock.

The train was pulled by engine No. 847, one of the large freight locomotives. Engineer John Trnham was at the throttle, while the crew was: Fireman John Jones, Conductor Thomas Flynn, and Flagman Harry Owen.

INTERNATIONAL COMPLICATIONS

MAY RESULT FROM AIRSHIP NAVIGATION.

Congressional Insurgents Are Taking to Chautauqua Platforms.

TO GIVE JOE CANNON FITS

Washington, Sept. 1. (Special.)—Reports in transportation and warfare are not the only persons who are watching with professional interest the amazing development of air flight. Every time a record is broken by an aeroplane or dirigible balloon the international law sharpens its bearing down upon them a cloud of disputation and argument which is sure to involve them in worry and confusion without even a first principle to anchor to when the storm breaks.

Just as the world in the last two thousand years or so has been slowly evolving a set of laws for the regulation of marine navigation, so will the world very likely during the next two thousand years evolve rules for the maintenance of order in the upper regions.

At the present time, if one aeroplane bumps into another there is nothing to say who is to blame. There are no rules of the road. Any individual may do as he chooses. He has no government to stand over or back of him. There is no ancient Roman law governing the situation. No Blackstone to look to as an authority. Individuals must agree among themselves; countries must devise rules just as communities have devised for their comfort and protection certain vexing regulations which the automobilist must observe.

As the sea extends everywhere and belongs to nobody so the air extends everywhere and belongs to nobody. It is for the concert of nations, through their international law experts, to accomplish this new task imposed by the development of the airship.

Three-fourths of the work of the Hague conference was devoted to agreeing upon certain rules of the sea. Noteworthy, too, was the foresight of the last conference in bringing up as an international question for the first time in the world's history the question of dropping explosives from airships. But the conference had no idea that dirigible balloons and aeroplanes were to be accomplished facts so soon. Heriot crossed the English channel without so much as by your leave to anyone, and landed on the cliffs of Dover. It is safe to say that in fifty years, if Heriot still lives, and comes to repeat his trick, the rules of the air will demand that he take a certain level, that he be fortified with impers such as a sailing master now carries, and that he observe the aeronautical rules of the port of Dover. Moreover, if the English government present some reason for objecting to miscellaneous flying over the channel as a menace to peace and good order, the French government will have to make it a question of diplomatic interchange with a view of establishing clearly just what Heriot may do and what he may not do.

The international complications which may arise in Europe when the aeroplane becomes less of a curiosity and more of a useful conveyance are dizzying to contemplate. If, to look ahead, the Zeppelin Aerial Navigation company purchases station sites in France and Belgium, and chooses to send its ships across the boundary, what international rules will regulate their landing and what customs regulations must they observe? If Carl Rundkopf gets a little too near the Danish coast fortifications, by what right is Copenhagen to take a pot shot at him as he hovers in midair in his 80-horse power Dlemmer aeroplane?

The world has not yet settled upon a code of laws for the regulation of problems of the sea. The Naval War college spends much of its time in codifying for the officer who may find himself in a doubtful situation laws which will enable him to act quickly and with knowledge of the full extent of his and his country's rights. A seizure at the wrong time or in the wrong place may provide ground for an international dispute; a slight misstep may force his country to go to The Hague court as a defendant in a long and costly case. Yet the field of marine law is simple compared with that which must follow the advent of airships. There will be international conferences, endless disputes, and many generations will probably have passed before the problem is fully solved.

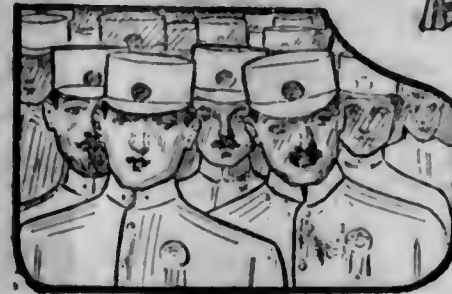

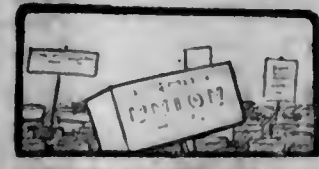

MRS. JOHNSON KNOWS
She Says That Parisian Sage Is the Only Hair Tonic That Ever Benefitted Her Hair.

Parisian Sage is the quick acting hair grower that can now be obtained in America and that is guaranteed by Gilbert's drug store to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Mrs. Johnson is too modest; she fails to state that she has a most charming and luxuriant head of lustrous hair.
She says:
"Parisian Sage is the only hair tonic that ever benefitted my hair, which was very thin on the top of my head. I began using Parisian Sage and used it daily for a while, afterwards I used it according to directions. I am absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, stop irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the growth of the hair, prevent baldness, and make the hair soft and silky. I would not be without Parisian Sage."
—Mrs. Sue Johnson, 229 4th St., Frankfort, Ky.

Parisian Sage is a most delicately perfumed hair dressing and has not a particle of stickiness or greasiness in it. It will not stain or dye the hair and contains nothing that would injure any hair or scalp.
It is the only preparation that is absolutely sure to kill the dandruff germ, which Dr. Sabouraud has proven to be the cause of all hair troubles.

Women who desire beautiful and luxuriant hair that will attract and fascinate, should use Parisian Sage. Leading druggists everywhere sell it. Gilbert's drug store sells it in Paducah for 50 cents a large bottle, and guarantees it to give satisfaction, or money back. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. of all evils in the present government of the house is the speaker's power of suppressing men on committees, or in "packing" the committees so that they will be pliant to his will.

Then, too, Speaker Cannon's reputation wasn't enhanced particularly by the course he adopted during the tariff session. He was aligned with the high duty advocates. It was "Uncle Joe" who led the fight for a tariff on oil; it was "Uncle Joe" who elaborately worked for increased rates on gloves and hosiery; it was "Uncle Joe" who later was found working—quietly but vigorously—against President Taft in his efforts to secure reductions. Some members are now wondering whether, if the rules actually had been revised on March 15, there would not have been a "real downward tariff revision" when the Payne bill was acted upon.
The chances are that during the next session every bit of legislation proposed by Speaker Cannon will be thoroughly scrutinized for possible

"jokers."
The president has already announced that he will ask congress next session to enact new railroad legislation. He favors progressive laws which will give the government greater or regulatory power over railway operations. So far, Speaker Cannon has stood sharply against such legislation, and he is hostile to any attempt further to increase the government's supervisory power over corporations.

Daily Thought.

Happiness cannot be purchased, but it can be acquired. Its foundation is contentment; and if we could only make up our minds to be satisfied with the life that God has seen fit to give us, then we are well along the road of happiness.

We hope every dog has had his day

August reports in Paducah showed increases in everything, excepting burial permits.

Henderson is alarmed over an epidemic of murders on account of the approaching federal census.

The Democratic hosts at the Louisville barbecue will not be treated with a visit to the Gaiety theater.

One up-state paper still thinks there was too much said about the night riders. That's what the night riders thought.

The Mayfield Messenger says "Watermelons will soon disappear from our markets." What's the use of this reprinting? Persimmons will soon be ripe.

Col. W. P. Walton, who recently disposed of the Kentucky State Journal at Frankfort, and retired from the newspaper work, today assumes charge of the Kentucky Gazette (Lexington), a controlling interest in which, it is announced, he has purchased. Colonel Walton's retirement from the field was regretted by the whole press of Kentucky, as his genial nature, vigorous policy and strong personality endeared him to the whole tribe of newspapermen and brightened the exchange tables. No one failed to glance over Col. Walton's editorial column each day; and seldom did one fail to find a bit of characteristic Waltonian among his crisp paragraphs. He is welcomed back into the field after a few months' vacation.

WEYLER.

Demagogue indeed must be the situation of Spain, which brings General Weyler, the Cuban butcher again to the front as the man of the hour. He proposes, if chosen to lead the campaign against the Moors in Africa, to call for 30,000 more troops, intending to crush the rebellion in a hurry at whatever sacrifice of life on both sides. Sometimes that is the simpler, easier and cheaper way. The horrors of war are cumulative, and being killed quickly in battle is the least of them. But Weyler's methods are not so famous for conduct of battle, as for the administration of civil government. It said the minister with great earnestness, "Thomas," whispered the lady who lived next door to a pretty widow, "come away; this is no place for you."—Chicago Record-Herald.

fight until the last man, woman and child of them is slain, in order to escape the terrible vengeance of Weyler when their arms are surrendered.

THE SMOKE OF RAILROADS.

Where there is smoke there is some fire; but also where there is some fire, there generally is a lot of smoke. Paducah is just now enveloped in a cloud of railroad smoke.

The Burlington is coming sure, and the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis will have terminals and equipment here that will put dwelling houses in demand. Other projects have not yet reached that degree of certainty, which marks the prospective operations of the Hill interests. However, if a bridge is to be built here, this crossing will become important to those railroads, lying within 100 miles of this place north and south of the river. Railroads must seek these bridges, just as wagon trails once led to the fords and thus and thus gave cause for settlements on the banks of streams.

The B. & O., the Frisco and the New York Central lines have branches just north of the Ohio. The Tennessee Central manifests activities that gave rise to the rumor that it would come to Paducah, also, to connect with some northern outlet. The suggestion is plausible, and we may expect definite information of a similar movement on the part of a road north of the river soon.

Some of this talk may be bluff to force other lines into better working agreements; but as to the Burlington and the L. & N., all doubt has been dissipated.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Next Sunday Mr. Rudolph Nagel will leave for New York, where he will sail in a few days for his former home in Bremen, Germany. Mr. Nagel will be in Europe until January 1, when he will return to Paducah. He is a tobacco broker, and his trip will be on business.

STATE PRESS.

Working on T. C.

General interest has been aroused by the reports concerning the extension of the Tennessee Central from this city to Paducah. The latest information connects the movement with a plan of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road to secure an air-line from the northwest to the Atlantic.

A party of civil engineers arrived here this morning at 11:20, their surveying paraphernalia, suit cases, etc., having preceded them on last night's train.

When asked concerning their plans they were very chary about giving out any information. They stated, however, that they would leave tomorrow morning and run a tentative line west, going by Cadiz. They said further that it was very probable that several such lines would have to be laid out in order that the most feasible might be selected and the permanent location made. So cautious were these gentlemen about giving out information that they would not even disclose their names.

The local officials of the I. C. and T. C. say they can make no statement as to the identity or purposes of the engineers.

It is certain that they are Tennessee Central employees. It is also known that loans and camp supplies have been secured here, indicating that the party will take the field for an extended trip.

The supposition here is that the party is headed for Paducah and that the survey is the beginning of the long looked for extension of the Tennessee Central to the Ohio river to connect with the Burlington, which is also headed for that point.—Hopkinsville New Era.

ST. LOUIS COMING HERE LABOR DAY

CAIRO UNIONS ALSO PROPOSE TO TAKE PART.

Two Sermons Will Be Preached Sunday Afternoon at the Deacons.

LOOKING FOR MANY VISITORS

Officers of the Central Labor Union have received word that the excursion from St. Louis on Labor Day will come by way of Cairo, and will arrive in Paducah about 8:30 o'clock. For the excursion to come over the Cairo line will be better, as the delay in transferring will not be encountered. The train will leave at 6:30 o'clock on the return trip. A large crowd is expected from the metropolis of Missouri as last year the visitors were pleased with the Kentucky reception and this year the railroad has arranged to haul more people. Labor Day Sermons.

Invitations to attend Labor Day sermons next Sunday have been extended by the Rev. M. E. Dodd, of the First Baptist church and the Rev. David C. Wright, rector of Grace Episcopal church. At the meeting of the Central Labor Union Thursday night the invitation will be acted upon formally, and it will be discussed whether to attend in a body. The invitations are appreciated by the union men and it is thought arrangements will be made to attend a labor sermon. Many of the pastors of the city will preach sermons relating to labor.

Will Begin His Third Season With Louis James—Coming Here.

Mr. Richard Scott, the young Paducah actor, will leave tomorrow evening for New York City, where he will join the Louis James company and begin rehearsals for the Shakespearean play, Henry VIII, which the company will present this season. The rehearsals will be held at Long Branch, N. J.

His Paducah friends and admirers will be pleased to learn that the company will play at the Kentucky theater November 10. This will be Mr. Scott's first appearance with the company in Paducah and his friends are anxiously awaiting the date of his arrival.

ORLEANS ATHLETES BALK.

Refuse to Take Part in Tri-State Fair Athletic Meet.

New Orleans, Sept. 1.—Applications of local athletes for permits to take part in the tri-state fair meet to be held at Memphis, September 29, have been refused by the Amateur Athletic Union on the ground that the meet will not be held under the auspices of the union or according to its rules.

The secretary of the Southern division of the Amateur Athletic union who has his headquarters in New Orleans announced that athletes who are members of clubs holding membership in the Amateur Athletic union are debarred under the rules from entering outside meets. JOY RIDES MAY END.

New York Law Makes It a Crime, Commencing Today.

New York, Sept. 1.—The Automobile Club of America has called attention of members and other interested persons to the fact that the laws against joy riding and tampering with cars which were passed at the last session of the state legislature go into effect today. In its announcement on the subject the board of governors of the club expresses the opinion that if the laws are brought to the attention of automobile owners, managers of garages, chauffeurs and the general public distinct beneficial public results will follow.

After today joy riding in this state will be classed as larceny.

The law against tampering with cars also goes into effect today, and like the anti-joy riding measure is an amendment to the act providing for the punishment of crime. This law provides that any person who tamper with an automobile or other motor vehicle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. An official of the club has suggested that copies of the new laws be posted in all of the public garages of this state and that owners who maintain their own garages inform their chauffeurs of the provisions of the new laws.

He is thoroughly disgusted with his present treatment and also fears the physicians are in a plot to kill him gradually. ter over because she fouled a flag mark. The Wolf (German), however, finished a close second. The Joyette winner of yesterday's contest, was a close third; the Hevetia was fourth; Margarethe, last.

It was a slashing race, sailed in a splendid breeze. The Ellen led once over the course, which beat to the windward, then ran back to the leavward twice, a total of twelve miles.
On the second round the Ellen continued the lead to the outer turn when the Wolf started to first place.
On the final run back the Ellen gained slowly on the Wolf, and near the finish line the wind filled the Ellen's sails and pushed her in winner by three lengths.

The Joyette finished 45 seconds behind the Wolf. The Ellen's elapsed time was 2:21:41.
During the race the Boston sloop Wanderer was run down and sunk by colliding with the revenue cutter Seminole, which was patrolling the course. A woman and two men and a boy who were aboard the sloop were all rescued.

poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured

A Keen Lad.
"I had always heard that New Englanders were smart," a young physician who has "graduated" from a village practice, remarked the other day, "but I hardly thought it developed at such an early age."
He smiled reminiscently, says
"Just after I settled in Dobbs's Corner a 12-year-old boy called on me one evening.
"Say, Doc, I guess I got measles," he remarked, "but nobody knows it except the folks at home, an' they ain't the kind that talks, if there's any reason to keep quiet."
"I was puzzled, and I suppose I looked it.
"Aw, get wise, Doc," my small visitor suggested. "What will you give me to go to school an' spread it among all the kids in the village?"

GOMPERS MAKES AN EXHIBITION

KIND OF INTERNATIONAL UNION AMERICA WANTS.

Was Not Considered Officially by Congress—Delegates Voted Not to Consider Any Proposal.

THOSE OF AFFILIATED BODIES

Paris, Sept. 1.—The International Trades Union conference voted to consider no proposition excepting those submitted by organizations affiliated with the conference. But, although the German, challengers though, thus debarring Samuel Gompers' affiliation proposition, the delegates nevertheless asked Gompers to elaborate on his proposition.
Gompers explained that the Americans were entirely willing to join an international movement, the objects of which are clearly fixed, such as for example the study of questions directly affecting strikes and the employment of women, but not an organization dedicated to the academic discussion of social problems. "If Europe is ready for this kind of a movement," Gompers said,
"I believe America will participate actively."

Gompers' proposal was not officially considered.
The afternoon was spent in a heated discussion of the proposition from the French Federation of Labor to transform the congress, which is now composed of the secretaries of the international organizations, into a congress of much wider powers, with delegates from each trade. The proposition was almost unanimously opposed and finally withdrawn.

DOESN'T COME FROM CORN.

Atlanta Doctor Forms New Opinion of Cause of Pellagra.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 1.—A case of pellagra, the victim of which claims never to have eaten corn bread or any corn products, has been uncovered in Atlanta. Mrs. Kate Barto is the patient, and she is in the last stages of the disease.

Dr. Frank Eskridge, who claims to have treated many cases of the disease, says he doubted his own diagnosis, and thought she might be a victim of "spruce," a disease known to the tropics, with symptoms resembling those of pellagra. He called in a physician who had had years of experience in the tropics, and found that his original diagnosis was correct.

"I am convinced now," he says
"that the disease does not come from corn products."

MORE LIABILITIES APPEAR
As Result of Failure of a Union City
Grain Company.

Union City, Tenn., Sept. 1.—Late developments in the failure of the Hardy Grain company are that, since the filing of the schedules of indebtedness, other liabilities have come to light, making the aggregate now $150,000.

It is reported that when a complete schedule of indebtedness is filed, it will total a quarter of a million dollars. Owing to the fact that several attachments were secured on the property before the assignment was made, there is some talk of throwing the firm into bankruptcy.

MARS ECLIPSE

GREAT PHENOMENON WILL BE VISIBLE HERE.

Mars and the Moon Will Be in Conjunction in Eastern Heavens.

Geneva, N. Y., Sept. 1.—An interesting eclipse of Mars by the moon, visible throughout the United States, will occur this evening, according to a bulletin issued by Prof. Wm. R. Brooks at Smith Observatory, yesterday. The phenomenon will last about an hour, beginning, in the longitude of Washington, at 8:42 p. m., and ending at 9:39. At places west of Washington the occultation will occur earlier and at places east of Washington later.

The eclipse will be visible to the naked eye, but the use of a small field glass, which will bring it clearly within observation, is advised by Prof. Brooks.

LABOR DAY

QUITS BEVERLY IN TWO WEEKS

THE PRESIDENT IS ANXIOUS TO START ON TRIP.

He Expressed Himself, However, as Being Sorry Vacation Is About Over—Enjoyed Beverly.

WANTS TO PAY THE VISITS

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 1.—Two weeks from today President Taft will leave Beverly on what will prove to be in many ways a record-breaking presidential tour. The president's first stop will be in Boston the evening of September 14, where he will be the guest of honor at a big banquet given by the Boston chamber of commerce. The following morning at 10 o'clock he will start a 12,000-mile journey back to Washington.

The way to the national capital will lead through Seattle, Los Angeles, the Grand Canyon, the tip end of Southern Texas, the Mississippi and many other points east and west. President Taft is looking forward to the beginning of the trip with mixed emotions. He is anxious to visit the various places included in his itinerary, and is never happier than when traveling, but at the same time he has expressed himself as "terribly sorry" that his vacation days are so soon to come to an end.

In Good Condition.

He appears in the best possible condition. He attributes this largely to the physical culture exercise he indulges in for an hour every morning before breakfast and to the three hours spent every afternoon on the links of either the Myopia or Essex club.

President Taft had an engagement this afternoon to see George H. Doty, chairman, and Charles E. Groves, executive secretary, of the Massachusetts state Republican committee. The call had no political significance.

Mr. Taft played golf with Secretary Knox yesterday morning. Mr. Knox, who is the guest of Henry C. Frick, at Frick's Crossing, just north of Beverly, will have several conferences with Mr. Taft before returning to Valley Forge, Pa.

ON STOCKYARDS

DR. FARLEY WILL STUDY BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS.

Cly Mea and Milk Inspector Will Attend Veterinarian Association.

Dr. Ed. P. Farley, city milk, meat and live stock inspector, will leave tomorrow for Chicago, where he will attend the American Veterinarian association, which will meet September 7, and continue in session for four days. While in Chicago Dr. Farley will visit the stock yards and intends to spend a week making a study of cattle with tuberculosis, and how they are handled. The importance of separating diseased cattle from the healthy animals is being brought forward in Kentucky, and Dr. Farley wants to get practical experience in the new methods of detecting the diseases.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 1.—George Howard White, of London, Eng., and Miss Annie Home, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Home, of Louisville, Ky., were married at noon today, in St. Peter's-by-the-Sea, the Rev. W. H. Ballen, rector of the church, officiating.

Only relatives of the bride were in attendance at the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Matthews.

A feature of the wedding was the gift of $23,000 to the bride from her uncle, Frank Bray, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. White left tonight for Lenox and the Berkshires and will sail for England soon.

Large Number of Barns Burned Recently in Evansville.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Paducah Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back, back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Paducah proof:

Tony Schaefer, 422 S. Ninth street, Paducah, Ky., says: "The hard work I have done together with excessive stooping, no doubt was the cause of my kidney complaint. There was a constant dull pain in the small of my back and across my kidneys and my whole body was often lame and sore. My kidneys were also very weak and the secretions passed too frequently. After having taken various remedies without getting relief, I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised. I obtained a supply at The 11st Drug Co. and to my delight the first few doses brought me relief. As I continued taking this remedy, I steadily grew better and every symptom of my trouble was finally removed. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of endorsement."

ACTING QUEERLY

DIVORCED WIFE OF BRODIE DUKE IS ARRESTED.

Demanding Fine Room and Automobile, Although She Had No Money At All.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke, was arrested and spent the night in a cell at the Harrison street station. The arrest was made upon the complaint of an automobile company on account of her inability to pay $40 rent for a machine during the day.

Before her arrest, upon her arrival at the Palmer house, she demanded the best suite in the hotel. When asked to pay in advance she admitted that she had no money, but said she would have $1,000 tomorrow. She then tried to send telegrams to Governor Deneen and other prominent men, but the messages were not paid for.

Later she went to the criminal court building and told Assistant States Attorney Day that relatives of her former husband were plotting to take her life. She also visited a number of lawyers and business men and tried to interest them in a plan to float a bond issue to save Turkey from bankruptcy.

BAD MONEY MORE PLENTIFUL.

Report of Secret Service Officials Shows Increased Complaint.

Washington, Sept. 31.—Secret service officials during the past fiscal year found there were increased complaints about the circulation of counterfeit notes imported from certain districts of Sicily. It was discovered in many instances that the banders of these counterfeiters, chiefly in and about New York, have been more or less intimately identified with the black mailing and murderous gangs known as the "Mafia" and "black hand" societies.

During recent months the agents of the secret service, assisted by the municipal authorities, succeeded largely in breaking up these counterfeiting enterprises.

Chief Wilkie states that his agents have co-operated with the representatives of foreign governments in the investigation and suppression of revolutionary movements in this country in violation of the neutrality laws, and at least two conspiracies for the manufacture of large quantities of counterfeit foreign obligations in the United States have been suppressed.

MOTOR BOAT CLUB IS IN PROSPECT

OWNERS TALK SERIOUSLY OF STARTING A GARAGE.

At Present They Are Exposed to All Kinds of Weather and Dangers.

WOULD BE WELL PROTECTED

Although the sentiments of motor boat owners in Paducah this summer pointed toward the organization of a club and there was a good deal of talk over forming such a club and building a garage, nothing has been accomplished; but it is believed that the plans now in mind may be carried out this winter and that with the arrival of next spring the organization of a club will be perfected and plans drawn for a large and modern garage to accommodate the number of launches.

A prominent motor boat owner was discussing the plan today and seemed to think that such an organization may be made and he for one will be a strong agitator for it. Paducah boasts of over 150 motor boats which are strewn along the river front, reaching from the Illinois Central railroad bridge to the Island creek bridge in Mechanicsburg. Many are protected at the wharfbort, but there is no suitable place for keeping the craft.

An idea suggested is to form a club, each member paying a fee and then to make preparations for an immense garage to be located, possibly at the foot of Jefferson street, where the old dry docks formerly were stationed. A movable floor would enable the craft to be protected at any stage of the river. The building of this garage would be the most expensive part of the venture, but the membership could easily stand the expense. Lubricating oil, spark plugs, gasoline and all other supplies could be bought in large quantities by the club and secured very much cheaper.

It is thought. A rental of $3 per month has been suggested for keeping the boats in the garage. Owners, it is believed, would not object to this price and would rather pay $3 for their boat to be safe and protected from any disturbances than $2, which many are now paying to tie their launches at the wharfbort, where they are exposed to all kinds of weather and many times in great danger of being wrecked. It is also difficult for motor boat owners to get in and out under the wharfbort stages while the garage would afford all possible conveniences.

The favorable talk of motor boat owners warrants the belief that a club will be organized in the near future and a garage erected by spring.

"WHERE IS MY WANDERING BOY TONIGHT?"

The Song Is Now Considered Out of Date by W. C. T. U. Woman.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—"Where is my wandering boy tonight?" is out of date, useless and should be placed under the temperance ban, according to Mrs. Emily Hill, president of the Cook County W. C. T. U., and chairman of the Temperance Parade committee, which plans to have 100,000 men, women and children march in the anti-liquor procession on September 25.

"Let's not sing that old hymn any more," she told an audience in Willard Hall last night. "It reflects on us. We ought to know where our boy is, and if he is wandering subject him to discipline."

THOUGHT WOMAN CRAZY.

Mrs. Hill Smokes Cigaret and Has Embarrassing Experience.

New York, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Betsey Hill, the English woman who was sent to Ellis Island under suspicion that she was insane because she smoked cigarettes while a customs officer inspected her baggage when the steamship Philadelphia arrived here on Saturday, has been released with a certificate that she is not only sane, but is a remarkably brilliant woman. Mrs. Hill, who is about 60 years old, is one of the best known European authorities on antiques and has accumulated a large fortune executing commissions for wealthy collectors. Many prominent Americans are among her clients.

Mrs. Hill demonstrated to the satisfaction of the immigration authorities that the smoking of a cigarette was not conclusive evidence of a woman's mental incapacity. This is her first visit to America. She leaves for the west in a few days.

The Gracy Childers dropped down last night and the towboat American and her fleet and the towboat Henrietta and her fleet dropped down this morning.

The Childers is owned by the Tynner line and abandoned the Nashville trade some time ago on account of low water.

The Chattanooga did not arrive until 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Evansville and left at 6 p. m. for a return trip.

The Cairo Bulletin says: "Capt. Charles Nichols makes a point worthy of consideration in connection with the prospective trip of President Taft down the river. He says there is going to be a scarcity of pilots to take the fleet down to New Orleans, because, since the river business has been done by local packers, pilots who know the river all the way from St. Louis to New Orleans are comparatively few. The river is going to be close to 'rock bottom' when the presidential fleet goes down in October; and the fleet will be 'on the go' day and night and some of the worst places in the river were likely to be encountered at night. All of which makes it advisable that the men at the wheels shall know their business thoroughly. The captain suggests therefore that a number of pilots be sent down the river from St. Louis to New Orleans, at government expense, in order to study the river some weeks before they are put in charge of boats in the president's fleet."

Honor Washington.

Budapest, Sept. 1.—The Americans who are now in Budapest attending the International Medical congress yesterday visited the statue of Washington and deposited wreaths at the base of the memorial. Count Albert Appony, minister

PUT CONSUMPTIVES TO WORK

Plan in Switzerland to Try Manual Labor Cure.

New York, Sept. 1.—Following an inspection of sanatoriums in Switzerland and England, Dr. H. M. Biggs, chief medical adviser of the department of health, has planned a vigorous and perhaps sensational course of treatment for the city's consumptive patients. Heretofore the course of treatment has been limited to plenty of fresh air and lots of nourishing food. But now the patients will have to go to work, and the harder the work the more certain, it is believed, will be their cure. The hospital at Otisville is in need of an addition and the men patients will be put to work as hod carriers and brick masons, being compelled to labor as long and hard as possible. Women patients must also do manual labor of the hardest kind, plowing, if able, and all other kinds of agricultural work. They will also be asked to do the carpentering work on the new structure at Otisville. Hereafter all patients must sleep out of doors, even if the temperature is ten degrees below zero.

Smith Beat Jones.

New York, Sept. 1.—All records are broken by the New York city directory for 1903, which has just appeared with the names and addresses of 567,509 persons in Manhattan and the Bronx, indicating a population in these two boroughs of nearly 3,000,000.

In the 1,819 pages there are 2,520 Smiths and 1,100 Joneses.

Mr. Robinson—What a singular girl you are, Miss Jones.
Miss Jones (tearfully)—Well, that can be altered, you know.
